Re: In re Various Grand Jury Subpoenas (Subject E)
Misc. No. 12-381 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

We represent Subject E, the respondent held in contempt by the Court in the Court's Opinion and Order, dated January 24, 2017 (Doc. #60). Respondent has fully complied with that Order, and seeks, in advance of the February 14th date when financial sanctions begin to take effect, to purge the contempt and vacate the citation and provision for sanctions.

We wish to file on this date a Motion to purge, since the Government has declined to consent to that relief, notwithstanding full compliance.

While the Motion may be filed of record, we write to request permission to file in camera and under seal a memorandum of law and Declaration in support of the Motion, as both reflect matters occurring before the grand jury, within the meaning of Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e)(2)(B). (The Court previously permitted, by endorsement memo, a similar protocol with regard to Respondent's papers in opposition to the Government's motion for sanctions. (See Doc. #47)). Accordingly, we once again ask the Court's permission to make an in camera and under seal filing of the supporting papers by emailing the same to the Court's deputy clerk.
